TERRE HAUTE INMATE CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF HEROIN

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that JOSE SOLEDAD ROBLES-RODRIGUEZ, 24, a Federal Bureau of Prisons inmate, was indicted by a federal grand jury sitting in Indianapolis for possessing a prohibited object, heroin, a narcotic drug, following an investigation by the Bureau of Prisons.

The indictment alleges that on November 10, 2006, after being subjected to a search ROBLES-RODRIGUEZ was found to be in possession a prohibited object, heroin, a narcotic drug.

According to Assistant United States Attorney James M. Warden, who is prosecuting the case for the government, ROBLES-RODRIGUEZ faces a maximum possible prison sentence of 20 years, a maximum possible fine of $250,000, and no more than 3 years supervised release in addition to his current sentence. An initial hearing will be scheduled before a U.S. Magistrate Judge in Terre Haute.

The indictment is an allegation only, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty at trial or by guilty plea.
